

Night For Museum Fundraiser

August 20, 2019

WEMBLEY, AB – Tickets for the always popular Philip J. Currie Dinosaur Museum fall fundraiser – A Night For the Museum – are on sale.

The venue's premier fundraising event, on Saturday, Sept. 28, promises to be an evening of great entertainment as the museum and community celebrate with live music, exciting games, rare and unique auction items, imaginative food and drinks, and a few surprises!

Tickets and sponsorship information are available at dinoball@dinomuseum.ca. Cost is $150 per person. Attire is semi-formal. The event is at the Pomeroy Hotel & Conference Centre, beginning at 6 p.m.

"We're excited to see the community join together for this fun occasion to benefit the Museum," says Executive Director Linden Roberts. "We're heading into the Museum's fifth year, a nice milestone to mark, and this is a terrific way to support our work while having an enjoyable outing."

There are also many sponsorship opportunities for the event.
